98th ANNUAL PROGRAM

CENTRAL MANOR

Camp and

Bible Conference

CENTRAL MANOR PARK

August 18 to 26, 1990

HISTORICAL

Shortly before the turn of the century, in an era when campmeetings were springing up in many places, our founder, Dr. I. A. MacDannald got the vision to start a campmeeting in the beautiful wooded area which we now occupy.

The Council of the Church of God at Washington Boro, of which Dr. MacDannald was pastor, agreed to cooperate if he could secure twenty tents and rent the ground. This came to fruition and the first camp opened with nineteen tents on Thursday evening September 7, 1892.

In 1905 the Central Manor Campmeeting Association was formed. In the same year the first tabernacle - twenty feet by fifty feet in size - was built and action was taken to build a dining hall.

Tents were used exclusively until 1926 when three cabins were built. There are now one hundred and twenty six cabins.

Our present auditorium now accommodates approximately one thousand people. The dining hall is able to seat three hundred fifty at one meal.

In recent years the association has been incorporated and we now function as a non-denominational campmeeting and Bible Conference facility, where the fundamental truths of the Word of God are faithfully proclaimed.

LOCATION

Central Manor Park is located two miles south of Mountville, one-fourth mile north of Route 999, midway between Millersville and Washington Boro.

DRESS GUIDELINES FOR CAMP MANOR

After much prayer and consideration, the Board of Directors hereby requests the campers and visitors to the camp to let their dress style be in a manner in which Christ is glorified! Modesty and Christian grace must be uppermost in our minds during the camping season.

The Board of Directors feels that styles and designs of clothing which are immodest are not appropriate for use during the entire conference.

The Board of Directors and Managers of the Camp shall use their discretion in determining immodest dress and shall suggest appropriate action. This dress guideline applies to campers as well as non-campers, and gentlemen as well as the ladies.

PLEASE NOTE:

It is not unusual in our culture to become busy with our own responsibilities. Central Manor Camp provides a place where one can come and relax in the beautiful surroundings and be refreshed by the ministry of God's Word. During the week, the camp provides spiritual enrichment through programs for children, youth and adults. Specifically, God has provided speakers, who have dedicated their lives to the building of God's kingdom. They evidence exceptional ability in communicating His Word, and demonstrate Godly character. The Board desires your support and involvement in this special ministry through your faithful prayers, consistent attendance at the services, contributions and cooperation. Pray with us that as God's Word is expounded, we may witness the salvation of souls, and the edification of believers.

The Board of Directors at their meeting April 18, 1936, passed a resolution inviting any furloughed missionaries who may desire to take advantage of our splendid program, to be the guests of the Association for any time they can spend at the meeting. Any missionary who believes in the fundamentals of the faith will be welcome to the meetings and will be entertained free of charge if they will communicate with Paul Habecker, 8 Park St., Washington Boro, PA 17582, Telephone 717-684-8737. This resolution is to be a permanent invitation to furloughed missionaries.

Young people desiring cottages must have an older person as chaperone who will be responsible for the conduct of those in the cottage. Parents are urged to see that their children do not damage any property of the Association.

Any person or persons who disturb the cottage of anyone will be dealt with. Rowdism cannot be tolerated on the grounds.

People who bring their pets to camp are requested to be in command of the pet at all times.

Examine the rules of the Camp and seek to carry them out, so that in every way you may seek to cooperate with the management.

We must depend upon Christian men and women, who reside on the ground, to assist the management to preserve order.

All persons should be in their cottages and quiet by 11 P.M.

CENTRAL MANOR CAMPMEETING
CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

The vision of Dr. I. A. MacDannald who was led of the Lord to start the Campmeeting in 1892, continues. With a vision for the future and in appreciation for the past the Centennial Committe is prayfully at work on the following projects, among others for the 1992, Campmeeting session.

1. PROGRAM: The preachers and special events planned for the camp will show that the vision burns as bright as ever. We believe as we share this celebration there will be a spiritual harvest in the lives of many people transformed by the Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ.

2. CENTENNIAL BOOK: It will include all you ever wanted to know about Campmeeting, but didn't know who to ask, the people, the events, the pictures. A valuable historical document. A record of past blessings.
3. VIDEO CASSETTE: Our message is the same as 100, years ago. But some of our methods change with the technology of our generation. A professionally produced video of the Centennial Celebration will preserve the event for convenient home viewing. We believe it will be useful as a means of Evangelism, bringing the message and mission of Central Manor Campmeeting to friends and neighbors.
4. HISTORICAL DOCUMENTS AND MEMORABILA: A public display area and permanent repository for historical items and pictures will be constructed. Any such items you possess and would like to give to the Camp for safe keeping and occasional display will be appreciated.
5. THE DR. I. A. MacDANNALD $100, CENTENNIAL FELLOWSHIP: We believe the expenditure of additional money is justified to properly celebrate our 100th year. So we introduce THE DR. I. A. MacDANNALD $100, CENTENNIAL FELLOWSHIP. We are asking you to give $100, to the Camp for this purpose, because you believe the vision of our founder was of the Lord and the present leadership continues to operate with the same vision. All who join this FELLOWSHIP, will receive a free copy of the CENTENNIAL BOOK, with your name printed in it. The form on the opposite page can be used for this purpose.
